Bafra has 1.5 km of beautiful sandy beaches, washed by one of the cleanest seas in the world. The Government of Northern Cyprus has identified the Bafra region as the No. 1 tourist destination on the island. Situated on the east coast, 25 km from Famagusta, the area is rapidly changing, receiving financial support from public and private enterprises for the construction of five-star hotels and nearby leisure and entertainment facilities. The project involves the construction of more than 12 luxury hotels on the coastline.
